FROM THE PRESIDENT

“WHY ADAT SHALOM...?”

ON FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 1, DAVID WAS INSTALLED AS OUR NEW PRESIDENT. BELOW ARE HIS WORDS FROM THAT SPECIAL EVENING:

DAVID SHERBIN

Good evening and good Shabbos. It's a true privilege and a wonderful opportunity to be the incoming President of Adat Shalom.

I want to thank the Board and the congregation for selecting me, as well as Lori Issner and Norma Dorman for planning this installation program. I also want to express my deep appreciation to my good friend Julie Teicher, who has been a great role model and will be a tough act to follow. I would be remiss if I didn't thank David Schostak, who asked me to join the executive committee six years ago.

As I look around this room, I am so happy that my parents, Libby and Jerry, and my brother and sister-in-law, Josh and Lisa are here to share this evening with me along with my father-in-law, Harry and his wife Helen.

I also want to say a heartfelt thank you to my friends who have honored me by being here tonight; I am really so very flattered and touched that you are here.

Unlike most, if not all, of my predecessors, I did not grow up in a Conservative Synagogue. My family left Temple Israel when I was 11, and we joined The Birmingham Temple, just a few miles down the road from Adat Shalom, but a light year away spiritually. My family's Jewish orientation was more cultural than religious. Yiddish, which was my parents' first language, was frequently spoken in my home and remained the preferred language of my grandparents long after they came

FROM RABBI BERGMAN

A GOOD END TO EVERY DAY

RABBI BERGMAN

Have you ever had this happen to you? You are finally in bed after a really long day. You are exhausted. Sleep is but seconds away. Then suddenly, you are wide awake, your heart beating faster than it did all day. It is not quite an anxiety attack, but it is not far off. What triggered it? It was probably the first time you had all day to think about how aggravated you were by something, or how frustrated you were that you did not finish what you wanted to. Maybe you were thinking about that person who cut you off in traffic, or only drove 25 mph on the freeway.

You feel as if you have two choices: either toss and turn for a couple of hours, or get up and watch TV. Either way, you are not going to get the rest you need that night, which means tomorrow is not looking good. You are already thinking of the excuses you are going to make for being in such a lousy mood. This happens to a lot of people in our very hectic and tense society.

I would like to share a teaching with you that will help you sleep better and have a more optimistic approach to life. (I imagine some of you are thinking that it is kind of funny for a rabbi to give suggestions about sleeping. I really do not mind if people sleep during my sermons. I am just happy they are there.) What helps me settle down at the end of the day, and lets me sleep is a prayer called the bedtime Shema. It consists of the the first six words and then the first paragraph of the Shema. I want to focus, however, on the first part of the prayer, which goes as follows:

Master of the universe, I hereby forgive anyone who angered or antagonized me, whether they did so accidentally, willfully, carelessly, or purposely; whether through speech, deed, thought, or notion. I forgive every one. May no one be punished because of me. May it be Your will, O God, my God and the God of my forefathers, that I strive to do the right things with my day. May the expressions of my mouth and the thoughts of my heart find favor before You.

You would then say the following blessing, and the Shema.

Blessed are You, our God, who brings slumber and drowsiness to my eyes. May it be Your will, my God and the God of my ancestors, that You lay me down to sleep in peace and let me wake in peace. May my ideas, bad dreams, and bad notions not confound me. Blessed are You, Who illuminates the entire world..

Different prayer books have various versions of this, but they all have the same idea. When we lie down, we should concentrate on thoughts of forgiveness, both of others and ourselves. This does not mean that we have to like everything that happened to us, but we should realize that the day is already in the past, and that there is nothing we can do. Instead, we should focus on what we can do to have a better day tomorrow. You do not have to use the words of the prayer book, though it is worth at least taking a look. You

FROM HAZZAN GROSS

HIGHLIGHTS FROM GERMANY

HAZZAN GROSS

I write these words as I sit on my Air Berlin flight from Germany back to the U.S., having just experienced one of the most cultural, historical and spiritual adventures of my life. I shared this experience with five congregants and I'd like to now share some of the highlights of this Cantors Assembly Mission to Germany with you.

Right off the bat was the opening night program in Berlin at the Rykestrasse Synagogue, Germany's most beautiful and largest functioning synagogue. Featured were two of my compositions from I Believe - A Shoah Requiem; in one of these I had the honor of performing as soloist. The next evening we welcomed Shabbat in a concert service in the striking Konzerthaus

HIGH HOLY DAY SERVICES FOR YOU AND FAMILY MEMBERS OF ALL AGES

We are very pleased to again offer you, your children, your teenagers, and college students the opportunity to worship together for the High Holy Days. We are looking forward to an exciting holiday season at Adat Shalom this coming fall. In this issue and separate mailings you will find a complete listing of all of our High Holy Day services for adults and children of all ages. We hope that this season's High Holy Day worship leads to a deeper spiritual experience for you and offers an enhanced family celebration for all.

As always, we will begin services together on Rosh Hashanah at 8 a.m., dividing into two services in the Main Sanctuary and the Rabbi Jacob E. Segal Social Hall at 9:15 a.m. Rabbi Bergman and Rabbi Shere will alternate between the services on the two days of Rosh Hashanah and on Yom Kippur Eve and Day. Hazzan Daniel Gross will conduct services accompanied by the Adat Shalom Mixed Choir. Mark Vieder will be accompanied by the Men's Choir under the direction of Marty Liebman.

MEMORIAL PRAYERS AT THE CEMETERY

As the High Holy Days approach, it is traditional to offer prayers at the graves of our departed loved ones. Hazzan Gross is happy to assist you in either preparing appropriate prayers to recite or by accompanying you at the cemetery. Please call Hazzan Gross at 248-851-5100, ext. 232, or his assistant Caren Harwood, ext. 231, to make arrangements.

Please understand that reciprocity can be extended for a maximum of three consecutive years. For details, contact Alan Yost.

SEATING

In order to be assured of your choice of seats, we urge all congregants to arrive as early as possible for both Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. YOU MAY SAVE SEATS ONLY UP UNTIL 10:15 A.M. PLEASE FOLLOW THIS RULE SO THAT ALL CONGREGANTS MAY BE SEATED IN AN ORDERLY MANNER.

DECORUM

A dignified atmosphere enhances the beauty of our High Holy Day worship. Members are reminded to remain at the rear of the Sanctuary or Social Hall when the congregation is standing at prayer, when the Rabbi is speaking, or when the Hazzan is chanting solo. Our ushers will signal appropriate entrance times for late-comers. Please cooperate with our ushers. They are volunteering their time so that we may all enjoy services to the fullest.

PARKING

Attendants will be on duty to direct you to a parking space. We realize that parking will be tight. WHEN LEAVING THE LOT, PLEASE WAIT UNTIL THE CAR AHEAD OF YOU PULLS OUT. WE MUST HAVE YOUR COOPERATION.

Please note that because the holidays fall during the week, worshipers will be permitted to park in the Beztak Companies parking lot directly adjacent to the Synagogue at 31371 Northwestern Highway. Summit Apartments on Northwestern Highway have also requested that worshipers do not use their parking lots.

For our congregants' convenience, we have arranged for satellite parking at Hillel Day School, 32200 Middlebelt Road (between Northwestern and 14 Mile Road). Shuttles will be running between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. on both days of Rosh Hashanah and on Yom Kippur Day.

Our Active Affiliates

■ MEN'S CLUB HAPPENINGS

ON MY BEHALF, as well as the Board of Trustees and all of the members of the Men's Club, I want to extend heartfelt thanks and Yasher Koach to Bobby Blum for all of the time and effort that made his a hugely successful tenure as our Men's Club president.

In this, my first column for the VOICE, I want to let you know what we have been doing over the summer and what we are planning for the coming year. My goals as incoming president are not limited to growing our membership and promoting our programs, but also to enhancing the Adat Shalom experience for all members of its community.

- Housing the Homeless -

The Men's Club of Adat Shalom has a long-standing tradition of volunteerism both within and outside of the shul. On July 17th, as we have done in each year, we participated in the Social Action Committee's annual Housing the Homeless project by hosting an evening with all of the food provided, cooked and served by our members (wives and kids, too!). It is always a very rewarding evening for all involved and you get to meet some very interesting people.

- Adat Shalom All-Stars -

Meanwhile, our softball team captains are reporting a fun-filled and winning schedule. Now that we field two squads, they even had to play one-another! (Is that what they call that a 'subway series'?) In any event, whether they're playing for the red team or the blue team, our guys are having a great time and getting in some exercise to boot. Wives and kids are welcome to come and cheer 'em on (and fetch the fouls...!). Thanks as always to Larry Kaplan, George Dickstein and Michael Betman for organizing, coordinating and leading us to victory.

OF COURSE, YOUR MEN'S CLUB is already gearing up for a program-filled year with many of our popular annual events, along with some exciting new programs and the return of a few oldies-but-goodies. This year, we will be inviting participation in our programs among our co-affiliates, the clergy and Adat Shalom's religious school. The calendar is indeed full and all we need is you!

- Family Fun Day -

Men's Club will be co-sponsoring a kick-off Family Fun Day with the Religious School and the Sisterhood on September 9th with food and fun for all ages. After that, the High Holidays will be upon us as they are early this year. Question: Why are they always early or late but never on time...? No matter. The Men's Club will be there to deliver a post-Neilah snack at the close of Yom Kippur. Believe me, if you ever want to feel really loved, handing out cookies post-Neilah is a sure-thing.

In the meantime, watch for our 2012-13 calendar of events which will be mailed out to all Adat Shalom members very soon and remember, we want you to not only attend our programs, but we also welcome your involvement in their planning and your participation in their success. Please feel free to contact me at mensclub@adatshalom.org with your questions, comments and offers to help.

All the best,
Joe Wener, Men's Club President

WHY SISTERHOOD?

BY CINDY BABCOCK

IN SEPTEMBER OF 1976, Howard and I were married at Adat Shalom. One year later we became members and as a birthday present, my mother bought me a lifetime membership to Sisterhood. For almost 30 years I did not attend one Sisterhood meeting or event.

As members of the synagogue, we attended holiday services, the occasional Shabbat morning service and religious school activities involving our two sons. The only synagogue event that we did attend yearly was the Purim Party, and if the one couple we knew at Adat Shalom did not attend, Howard and I sat and talked to each other all evening.

Then in 2004, Howard went alone on an Israel Mission with Adat Shalom, while I remained home to be with my severely ill father. Howard made some very good friends on that trip, and when he returned introduced me to them. The women encouraged me to become involved with Sisterhood. I jumped in with both feet! The more I got involved with Sisterhood the more we became involved with the synagogue. We started attending Shabbat services more regularly, as well as enjoying synagogue social events with our new friends. Our circle of synagogue friends continued to grow, and now when we are at Adat Shalom we feel we are truly part of the Adat Shalom family, and we have one of the largest tables at Purim Party Plus!

I am proud of what the Sisterhood of Adat Shalom does for the synagogue, for their involvement in the Conservative Movement, and for the community as a whole. We have the best Kiddish around, we raise money for and support JTS, we work with the homeless, provide scholarships for congregational youth to visit Israel, and support Adat Shalom Synagogue in numerous ways. Sisterhood is in a year of restructuring and rebuilding. Please join us in this process. We welcome everyone's ideas and suggestions to make the Sisterhood of Adat Shalom the best it can be!

COLLEGE STUDENT & YOUNG ADULT OUTREACH

- Is your son or daughter starting college this fall?
- Is he/she moving to a new place in the fall?
- Did he/she graduate from college last May?
- Do you want your student to stay connected to Adat Shalom?

If you answered YES to any of these questions, help us reach out to your student or young adult.

Throughout the school year our rabbis visit Michigan universities in hopes of connecting with your son/daughter. With the help of parent volunteers, Adat Shalom sends your student Chanukah and Pesach 'goody' packages and email messages from our Rabbis.

In addition, Adat Shalom wants to connect with young adults (20-30s). Adat Shalom sends them holiday packages, email messages from our Rabbis, and invitations to participate in the Young Adult Group at Adat Shalom (see page 11 for more information).

We appreciate it if you have already given us your son/daughter's contact information last year. Nevertheless, each fall we update our database and kindly request your help by completing the tear off below or emailing the information on the tear off to Jodi Gross, jgross@adatshalom.org. If your student/young adult has not moved, please let us know that as well. Thanks.

BETH ACHIM RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Preparing for a New Year

from Melissa Ser

Director of Congregational Learning

IT'S A GREAT TIME to walk through store aisles. Seeing all those brand new school supplies makes you so excited about the promise of the new school year about to start. (Isn't it amazing what a fresh box of crayons and a new notebook can do?)

The Adat Shalom team of educators has picked up its supplies and is ready to welcome you and your families, with Religious School preparations in full swing. We have a lot of new and exciting educational programs for this congregation, and I'm thrilled to be guiding them.

WE ARE REVITALIZING THE SUNDAY MORNING PROGRAM FOR OUR K-6 STUDENTS. We will begin our day with Jewish Connections, our grade-level based curricula of holidays, life cycle events, Jewish history, Israel, and current events. Our students will learn to connect personally with each of these aspects of their heritage and history.

Following our Jewish Connections curriculum (which will often include family education, as well as art, music, and computers), we'll come together for prayer as a school-wide community (Tefillah b'Kehilah). This will be a regular opportunity for parents to join their children in prayer and song.

Finally, we will end our Sunday mornings with Hebrew Connections, an integrated language and prayer curriculum that

GRINS ARE IN AT ADAT SHALOM DAY CAMP!

JEWISH FAMILY EDUCATION

AS WE ENTER THE LAST MONTH OF SUMMER, we begin planning for a new year. Of course at Adat Shalom, we have been planning for a new year for months now. We have new ideas, services, curriculum and programs for you. But we still need your input, attendance, involvement and participation on all different levels.

Sometimes I feel like I live at Adat Shalom. It is the place where I pray and the place where I work. In reality I spend more hours here than I do at home. But I feel a comfort in calling this my home away from home, and I hope that you do too. If you are not there yet, please reach out and let us help you make this your home. You can talk to whomever you are most comfortable with, whether it is a member of the clergy or someone from the Education & Youth Department. The point is, that we are here for you. Please join us in making this house, our home.

EARLY CHILDHOOD CENTER

ADAT SHALOM EARLY CHILDHOOD CENTER EDUCATOR
WINS PRESTIGIOUS GRINSPON-STEINHARDT AWARD
FOR EXCELLENCE IN JEWISH EDUCATION

WE ARE SO EXCITED TO ANNOUNCE that our own Rachel Levine, 3&4 year-old teacher, has received the Grinspoon Steinhardt Award for excellence in Jewish Education. The Grinspoon and Steinhardt Foundations recognize that a strong Jewish education is one of the key predictors of a child's continued Jewish commitment as he/she grows into adulthood. Rachel was selected from a multitude of applications. The selection is done through the Federation. Rachel is an incredible teacher who makes learning fun. She recognizes the importance of positive self-esteem and self-image and uses her talent to infuse the love of learning to the children in her class. We are thrilled that Rachel's passion is our gain.

Rachel has been teaching in the field of Jewish education for eight years, seven of which have been here in the Adat Shalom ECC. She worked in secular education for nine years prior to that. She holds a Bachelors Degree in Elementary Education from Eastern Michigan University and an M.A.T. from Oakland University.

SUMMER FUN AT ADAT SHALOM

Camp is in full swing, and the children are having a fantastic summer. Their smiles each day are testaments to their wonderful experience. The weather has been great, and the heat gives us a lot of water play opportunities. The children have loved the oscillating sprinkler the best. We have brought in special guests throughout the summer. We began with a party, and we continued the celebration all summer long. We've enjoyed the bouncie, a petting zoo, a mad scientist, the "animal guy" and so much more. We've celebrated pajama day, red white & blue day, crazy hat day, bring your favorite stuffed animal day, and more. We never run out of days to celebrate.

If you would like to sign up for last two weeks of camp, August 6 and 13, space is still available. Also, before the school year begins, we will be offering FUN DAYS the weeks of August 20 and 27. Please contact the office for additional information or to sign up.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

to this country. My Jewish identity was also powerfully shaped by my many years in Habonim, a labor Zionist youth group that I grew up in and to which Rabbi Bergman once belonged as well.

My decision to join a Conservative congregation was a choice made as an adult, not one I was born into. As I reflect on that decision and the impact it has had on my life, I realize there are both positive ramifications and responsibilities that stem from my affiliation. But why Adat Shalom and why would I choose to become its president?

Abbe grew up in a conservative congregation, Beth Israel in Flint. In one of the few non-negotiable issues in our marriage, we sought out Conservative congregations when we moved back to Michigan 15 years ago. Adat Shalom was an easy choice for us. Its initial appeal was that it was the only egalitarian conservative synagogue in town. With a principled and strong willed wife and as the parents of two daughters, anything less was unacceptable. We also met Rabbi Danny Nevins, who was incredibly warm and welcoming, and Alan Yost, who was equally kind and inviting. The synagogue had a hamishe air about it that drew us in and made us feel comfortable. Our initial impressions still ring true, perhaps even more so than when we first joined.

I'm really so proud to be the new president of this synagogue for a number of reasons. I believe this is a special congregation that cares deeply about its members. We have outstanding clergy, dedicated professional staff and committed lay leaders. I enjoy the friendships I've made with members of the board and the congregation, and I believe in giving back to our shul and contributing to its continued success. I'm also here because Abbe encouraged me, not overtly, but by setting an example of leadership in our Jewish community. And, I happily accepted the offer to be president, in part, because I want Liza and Anna to appreciate, perhaps more than they already do, that conviction, commitment and volunteerism are important and lifelong pursuits.

As I think about the next several years at Adat Shalom, I'm reminded of a quote I saw on the wall of Cornell Law School on my first day there. The quote from a famous American Jurist, Roscoe Pound, read "The law must be stable, but it cannot stand still." For some reason, I've never forgotten that line and it still resonates with me close to thirty years later. I think it's because I have an emotional attachment to tradition, though I readily embrace positive change.

Adat Shalom is a healthy and dynamic congregation, and we have a lot of good things going for us. We're fortunate to have the clergy we do, most of whom are relatively new to the synagogue. We've just hired a talented director of congregational learning. We're stable financially, and for many of you, the next time you walk into this social hall, it will have been completely renovated. We also have certain traditions that are unique among the other conservative synagogues in town: no synagogue completes a full torah service each week, and I've been told that we haven't missed a morning minyan in over 40 years – That's stability and that's impressive.

But I think we'd all agree that we cannot stand still. The decline in the Conservative movement in general and the fact that our own Jewish community continues to shrink compel us not only to explore new opportunities to reach out to current and potential congregants – but also to work more closely with other synagogues and temples, to create new joint programming and educational opportunities, to break down some of the old factionalism that, in very real terms, we can no longer afford.

These issues are concerning, but I am confident that with the active involvement of our members, we will continue to evolve and progress in the years ahead to meet these challenges.

Again, I really want to thank you for being here this evening. I want to say thank you again to Abbe, Liza and Anna for both encouraging me to assume this position and for your unconditional love and support and your understanding of the commitment this will involve. Shabbat Shalom.

will enable students to read and understand our siddur – and much more.

ON WEDNESDAYS, our 2nd-7th graders will begin with Hebrew Connections and then transition into Jewish Connections as we round out the afternoon.

Integrating our curriculum allows for unique understandings like the following, in connecting the words for listen (shema), peace (shalom), and make (oseh):

HEBREW	TRANSLITERATION	TRANSLATION	SOURCE
שמע ישראל	Shema Yisrael	Listen, Israel	Torah, Prayer
נעשה ונשמע	Na'aseh v'nishmah	We will do and listen	Torah
עושה שלום	Oseh Shalom	Maker of Peace	Prayer
שלום! מה נשמע	Shalom! Mah nishmah?	Hey! What's up?	Modern Hebrew

Once we understand the meaning of these Hebrew words, we can make connections: is "Na'aseh v'nishmah" the answer to "Shema Yisrael"? Is there a difference between the "oseh" in "oseh shalom," one name for God, and the "na'aseh" that we say – and what is it we're agreeing to do? In light of the first three expressions, does "hey, what's up?" feel any different?

That's just a taste of our outstanding Religious School program, which begins on Sunday, September 9. We can't wait to see your children and grandchildren walking through our halls! There is still time to register, if you haven't done so already. (Make sure to pick up some crayons!) We have plenty of new Adult Education classes for you, as well, beginning after Simchat Torah. We'll tell you more about them in next month's VOICE.

Praying With Their Feet

Shelley and I were privileged, once again this year, to attend the American Cancer Society Relay for Life at the West Bloomfield High School in June. This year, beyond the scores of supporters of the American Cancer Society and cancer survivors who crowded the sponsor tents and the track all day and night was a Torah brought to the event by our own Rabbi Rachel Shere. The Torah was kept and closely watched in the Team Esther Tent, in memory of Esther Olson. Several other teams were also led by Adat Shalom members in memory of their precious relatives who also battled against cancer.

Many of us had the privilege of walking the track with the Torah to show God's support for the cause that every one was there for. As Rabbi Rachel said, "The Torah is meant to reside in a place of holiness. I can't think of a holier place than here. Everyone who has come today is praying with their feet."

Berlin, a hall that rivals Carnegie in both acoustics and beauty. The following morning we had a Shabbat service during which forty-five different cantors davened (there were seventy-five on the trip,) and I led everyone in the Mi Sheberach which we sing every Shabbat at Adat Shalom. The next day there was a breathtaking concert in the Berliner Dom featuring many of my colleagues and the cathedral's magnificent choir. It was very powerful to experience Jews and non-Jews singing together in this prominent Protestant church that dominates the Berlin landscape. Some other memorable highlights in Berlin were a boat tour along the Spree River canal, watching the Euro 2012 soccer finals on huge screen TVs set up in Tiergarten Park, and a visit to the impressive Pergamon Museum with all of its relics from the Ancient Middle East and Islam.

We then traveled south to Munich and made our way to Dachau. Here we davened Shacharit and toured the numbing grounds of the concentration camp. Then back in Munich we spent the afternoon at the newly constructed Jewish Center in the heart of the city for a very moving memorial service commemorating the forty years since the tragedy at the 1972 Olympic Games in Munich. Three hundred people united together in respect as we dedicated a moment of silence to the eleven Israeli delegates who were mercilessly murdered. Following this service, we davened Mincha in the impressive Ohel Jakob Synagogue. This day was by far the emotional crux of the trip.

On the last day of the mission, many of us spent the day in Salzburg. Most famous for The Sound of Music and Mozart, it is a city that should be on everyone's "to visit" list. Finally, what made the trip most special was a series of lectures given by the historian Dr. Stephen Berk. A riveting orator, Dr. Berk put into historical perspective the story of the Jewish people in Germany from the Middle Ages through the modern era. Always able to captivate the audience, Dr. Berk added a dimension to the trip that those present will surely always remember.

I'm sure that plans are already in the works for the next international Cantors Assembly trip. I hope that you will consider joining me as a delegate on this unique musical journey of heritage and healing.

◀ SOCIAL ACTION IN ACTION ▶

We were very busy this summer getting ready for our guests from the South Oakland Shelter. Thanks to everyone for their efforts in this important project. Watch for all the details in next month's VOICE.

YAD EZRA DELIVERIES.... Thank you to Natalie Blum for coordinating the volunteers this past year. Natalie is attending medical school, so we are looking for someone to assume this role. "Job" responsibilities are to coordinate the volunteers to make the deliveries on four Sundays in 2012-2013. The dates are October 14, January 20, 2013, May 19 and September 13. Interested? Give me a call at 248-798-7673.

A NEW PROJECT OPPORTUNITY... Joanne Kristal, Community Outreach Director for Jewish Senior Life, recently contacted me. She is looking for volunteers to assist older Jewish adults who reside in non-Jewish facilities. There are more than 1000 older Jewish adults residing in over 100 non-Jewish facilities in the Detroit area. Activities can include friendly visiting, playing games, doing a social action project together, or celebrating holidays or Shabbat. She would find the facility and help plan the activity. Contact me if you can help. It is so important to keep these seniors involved in Jewish life.

Minyan Musings

FROM BARRY L. LIPPITT, RITUAL DIRECTOR & COORDINATOR, BAR/BAT MITZVAH INSTRUCTION

IN AUGUST WE LIKE TO UPDATE our records so we are ready for the new year, and the new year's projects. Our first project this coming year is to match all of our members who had a bar or bat mitzvah ceremony with their individual parashah and Haftarah. If you're on our compiled list, we'll be able to reach out to you to invite you to have an aliyah to mark the anniversary, or to chant Haftarah when we have no new bar or bat mitzvah observance scheduled. To help me compile this list, send an email to me (blippitt@adatshalom.org) and use the message title: "Bar Mitzvah anniversary information."

MANY CONGREGANTS ASK US to add a prayer for healing for family members and friends. If you would like us to add a name to the Mi Sheberach list, send an email to both me and my assistant, Caren Harwood (charwood@adatshalom.org), and include the following information: 1. English name, 2. Hebrew name and mother's Hebrew name, if known, 3. Reason for addition to list (this is kept confidential, shared only with clergy), 4. When to begin (e.g., immediately, or on date of or preceding surgery), 5. When to end (we will typically list someone for 1 month, unless we receive other instructions)

When sending the email, use the message title: "Mi Sheberach request."

WHEN A MEMBER FAMILY EXPERIENCES A LOSS, Adat Shalom will often arrange to supervise the home shiva services by sending someone either to lead the prayer services or to assist family members in leading the services. Because clergy are not always available to supervise these services, we look to our lay members to represent the synagogue on these occasions.

We are compiling a new list of lay members who would like to participate in this program, and will provide them with the training and background to serve as the synagogue's representative. If you would like to be on the list, please send me your name, email address, and daytime phone number (home or cell).

THE HIGH HOLIDAYS ARE JUST AROUND THE CORNER, in the middle of September. As in the past, we invite our post-b'nai mitzvah teens (in middle school or high school only, please) to enhance the holiday experience by reading Torah for our services. Invitations have gone out to many of our teens; if you did not receive one and would like to chant Torah this year, please send an email to me (blippitt@adatshalom.com) no later than August 10. Review sessions for readers will be held on Thursday, 9/6; Sunday, 9/9; and Thursday, 9/13.

AUGUST IS A PRIME MONTH for vacations, and several of our morning and evening minyan regulars will be away. Please help us out in August by picking a day of the week and a service, and make it your own during August (and, of course, you don't need to stop at month's end). In return, we offer you a friendly community for prayer, and, if you join us in the morning, a great breakfast. Morning minyan begins at 7:30 a.m. Monday - Friday and 8:30 a.m. on Sunday. Evening minyan, from Sunday - Friday begins at 6 p.m.

AS A REMINDER FOR ALL WHO JOIN US IN THE MORNING on days we read Torah (Mondays, Thursdays, Rosh Chodesh, and Fast Days), our minyan policy is that, to receive an aliyah, men must be wearing tefillin (we do have some extra sets available for your use, but we can't promise they'll fit). In particular, if you're coming to get an aliyah when you have yahrzeit, and you're a male, bring your tefillin or ask to borrow a set.

SPEAKING OF OUR DAILY BREAKFAST, it would not be possible but for the culinary skills of Marvin Brown. For those who enjoy our breakfasts when they come, please consider a donation to our Minyan Breakfast Fund, to mark an aliyah you receive at the daily minyan, to make a donation when you request a special prayer be offered, or just because you like French Toast Tuesdays (if you don't know what these are, please join us on a Tuesday morning).

MARVIN BROWN, OUR OWN MASTER CHEF, IS FAMOUS FOR "FRENCH TOAST TUESDAYS" AND OTHER MINYAN BREAKFASTS THROUGHOUT THE WEEK. COME AND ENJOY BREAKFAST FOLLOWING MORNING MINYAN!

INTRODUCING

We invite you to involve yourself in Adat Shalom's inner workings by sharing in the responsibility as well as the satisfaction to be gained from playing a direct role in the operation of the Synagogue.

The following committee chairpersons look forward to your participation. Please look over the list, and call Executive Director Alan Yost at 248-851-5100, or you may send him an email at ayost@adat-shalom.org, to discuss your interests.

Adat Shalom Synagogue Tribute Contributions

ADAT SHALOM'S tribute funds provide support for our many important synagogue programs and services, which help to define us as an outstanding congregation.

We have set a $10 minimum price for tribute cards, on par with other area congregations. Prayer Book Fund contributions are $36 for the daily Sim Shalom Prayer Book, $50 for the Shabbat Sim Shalom Prayer Book, and $50 for an Etz Hayim Chumash.

We are very grateful to members and friends who have consistently purchased tributes, marking lifecycle events and other significant occasions, and we encourage your continued support. Each greeting is individually prepared on a handsome card.

To arrange for a tribute, please send the following information to the Synagogue office:

1. Name of Fund
2. Occasion: (In memory of ... In honor of ... Speedy recovery to ... (Please print names.)
3. Name(s) (first & last) and address of person(s) to be notified
4. Your name(s) & address
5. Check for $10 per tribute

We will process your tribute and mail it promptly.

To make a tribute online, go to: www.adatshalom.org/donate.php

Tributes received by the 1st of the month will appear in the following month's VOICE.

If you would like information on how to establish a fund, please contact Executive Director Alan Yost.

We record with sincere appreciation the following generous contributions designed to maintain the programs of Adat Shalom:
