INVESTING IN OUR FUTURE

Maimonides wrote that the week between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur "is a week of unprecedented opportunity with guaranteed returns for those who will invest." The leadership of Adat Shalom is again asking for your support by making a contribution to Adat Shalom, and hence an investment in the strength and stability of our congregation.

We are once again going to have a "Yom Kippur Appeal." This type of appeal is traditional in temples and synagogues across the country. We believe this appeal is necessary to raise money to assist with our annual operating needs, which will also help balance our budget and eliminate our operating deficit. The lay leadership works hard to minimize any operating deficit, but the lingering economic recession has continued to put many of our member families in financial hardship,

WE MAY NEVER KNOW Why...

THOUGHTS FOR YOM KIPPUR

Over the last year or so I have stopped asking most "why" questions, especially concerning why bad things happen to so many good people. I have never found an answer that really satisfies me. Some say that God does not have the power to change things in order to save people. Other answers propose that God is actively behind everything, and we just do not understand why the incident that seems so tragic is actually for the best. I believe we can make the most of a bad situation, but I find it difficult to believe in a God who would appear so cruel.

If we wait for a clear, direct and understandable answer to why there is tragedy in the world, we are going to wait for a long time. We will never be able to make perfect sense of the world, not its wars, illness, and natural disasters. However, we can bring kindness and hope into the world. We can bring courage even when we are

TAKE THEM A MEAL.COM

There is a fabulous new website that I really believe can strengthen our Adat Shalom community. It is called "Take Them A Meal.com" and offers the necessary organizational tools to provide meals for community members in times of need.

Whether someone has a loved one in the hospital, is ill him/herself, or has had a loss in the family, a homemade meal delivery conveys love and is a very practical way to help each other through difficult times. Adat Shalom has already started to use it to organize meals for people who are recovering from surgery and would like to continue using it as a spiritual tool.

If you or someone you know would benefit from meal delivery for a short or extended period of time, please email me (rshere@adatshalom.org) with the information. I will use the website to reach out to others to ensure that it happens.

The Psalms teach us that "God provides food for all"; it is our responsibility, however, to make sure it is delivered.

HAZZAN GROSS

FROM HAZZAN GROSS

SHAKE SHAKE SHAKE...SHAKE YOUR LULAV!

Is it just me, or does this KC and the Sunshine Band song pop into anyone else's head around this time of year?

But seriously, what is the lulav all about? Leviticus 23:40 states that on the 15th day of Tishrei, one should take "fruit of goodly trees, branches of palm-trees, and boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook..." These are all represented, respectively, by the citron (etrog), a palm branch (lulav), myrtle branches (hadassim), and willow branches (aravot), and collectively referred to as The Four Species or Arba'at Haminin.

There is a Midrash that says that combining the Four Species symbolizes the need for unity among all of the Jewish people. The citron is a fragrant fruit, the palm bears fruit but no fragrance, the myrtle is fragrant with no fruit, and willow bears neither fruit nor fragrance. The midrashic analogy equates the fruit to knowledge and the fragrance to good deeds. Just as during the Passover seder, the four sons embody everyone, the Four Species personify everyone on Sukkot. Another Midrash compares the Four Species to parts of the human body: the lulav is the backbone, the myrtle is the eye, the willow is the mouth, and the etrog is the heart (hence the etrog is held in the left hand, closest to the heart).

So what's with the shaking then? Falling in the middle of autumn, Sukkot marks the beginning of the rainy season. The themes

SUKKOT AND THE DEFENSE OF WESTERN CIVILIZATION

Recently historians Dr. Ruth Wisse and Dr. Jack Wertheimer engaged in a dialogue entitled "American Jews and the Defense of Western Civilization." Professor Wisse, born in east-central Europe in 1936, writes that "America gives Jews the best chance we ever had, and having the State of Israel come into being when there is a strong America is unbelievably important...(this alignment) should make us feel more confident. At the same time, it seems to me that because of the intensity of hostility against the Jews in particular, Jews are the fighting front line of Western civilization."

The holiday of Sukkot teaches us how we can be strong as we prepare to fight on the front line of Western civilization.

First, we must be a united community. The command for Sukkot is "V'samachta B'chakecha" - "You shall rejoice in your Holiday of Sukkot." Read not "V'samachta,"

KOL NIDRE FOOD DRIVE

WE NEED YOUR FOOD...

AND YOUR FUNDS to feed the Jewish hungry. The annual community-wide Yad Ezra Kol Nidre Food Drive will take place on Friday evening, October 7. You will be receiving your Yad Ezra bag in the mail. Please fill it (and more!) with kosher, non-perishable food, and bring your bag(s) with you to services that evening.

Please remember that financial donations are also very important. Your checks are critical to maintain Yad Ezra's commitment to the community. Much of the food that is distributed must be purchased.

You will find collection jars so that you may deposit your checks or empty your pockets for a cash donation to the cause - in keeping with the tradition of giving tzedakah just before Kol Nidre Services.

Yad Ezra, our local kosher food bank, distributes thousands of pounds of food annually to more than one thousand needy families in the Jewish community.

Think about bringing:
 canned juices, canned gefilte fish, tuna, cold cereal, canned vegetables & fruit, tomato sauce, pasta, peanut butter, coffee & tea, paper goods, baby items and more...

PARKING

Attendants will be on duty to direct you to a parking space. We realize that parking will be tight. WHEN LEAVING THE LOT, PLEASE WAIT UNTIL THE CAR AHEAD OF YOU PULLS OUT. WE MUST HAVE YOUR COOPERATION. Please note that worshipers will be permitted to park in the Beztak Companies parking lot directly adjacent to the Synagogue at 31371 Northwestern Highway on Kol Nidre and Yom Kippur Day. Summit Apartments on Northwestern Highway have requested that worshipers do not use their parking lots.

I (we) pledge to Adat Shalom Synagogue's Yom Kippur Appeal the amount indicated by the tab folded above.

This fall your Adat Shalom leadership is asking for your support in making an investment in the strength and stability of our congregation. They are appealing to you to assist in raising money for our annual operating needs, to balance our budget and, therefore, assist in eliminating our annual deficit.

The Synagogue has unmatched personal resources in our clergy and staff, but we, as with all Jewish institutions in this community, struggle with our annual operating needs. Changing demographics taking place in the Detroit Metropolitan area, compounded by the impact of the current lingering economic recession, have placed significant hardship on our member families.

All families have received "tab cards" on which you can turn down a dollar amount tab to indicate your commitment. Please make your selection and bring the card with you when you attend Yom Kippur services on October 8th. A duplicate tab card will also be available in the Synagogue lobby preceding the service.

with a related result that not every family pays the full amount for their dues category. However, the fixed operational costs do not diminish on a par with the reduced income from dues. While we continue to assess our expenditures, we do so mindful of our desire to continue to maintain the wonderful clergy, staff and services that are at the heart of the value that Adat Shalom provides to its member families.

For those of you who have or will purchase Israel Bonds, please consider donating your bonds to Adat Shalom as part of our Appeal. This is a "win-win" situation for Israel and Adat Shalom.

As we did last year, there will be many levels of giving. We hope that all of you are able to participate at whatever level you are comfortable. Institutions like Adat Shalom are not able to survive unless we all make a continuing investment in their future. Thank you for your support to date. May this season enrich our lives as we renew our commitment to Adat Shalom and to its future. Wishing you a Shana Tovah and a year of joy, fulfillment and peace.

afraid ourselves. The question I choose to focus on, then, is, "What do we do to help people through these endlessly confusing and difficult times?"

Yom Kippur is the perfect time to contemplate this question. It is not a time to beat ourselves up about past failings. After all, we tap our hearts gently when we list those aspects of our lives that we could have handled with more sensitivity and thoughtfulness. It is an opportunity to reflect on what we can do to help others with their pain and challenges.

Sometimes we do not reach out to help others because we do not know what to say. We feel awkward, and like failures, if we cannot answer their spoken or silent questions over why something so terrible happened. There is no answer. There is only a response. We can admit to our own confusion, but also to our love of life even when times feel so hard. This is not weakness but the deepest kind of empathy. We can offer our presence, our love, and our compassion.

We may never know why things happen, but we must remember that we can help perfect a world very much in need of us.

one rabbi teaches. Instead use the word "V'simachta" – make others happy. "Caring about making others happy helps to unite us as a community in a positive way." Erik Larson, in the best seller, In the Garden of Beasts, writes about the lack of Jewish unity during the period of 1933-1938, when William Dodd, the subject of his book, was the United States Ambassador to Germany. Not only were Jews at odds with each other; so were the Americans.

Second, when there is aggression against Jews, do not invest yourselves in finding fellow Jews responsible. Do not scapegoat! It may be a healthy impulse to reform our fellow Jews, but it is wrong, as Professor Wisse writes, "because of the context within which it exists." The lulav and etrog held together remind us that we are one!

Third, come to the synagogue and remember how the sukkot in the desert were sustained by our own hand, by our faith in God, and by our willingness to courageously defend ourselves against those who fought against us. We lived in sukkot. We survived that period as a people. We will survive our current challenges, too. Psalm 27, which we will continue to say in our prayers each day through Sukkot, has the words "Chazak V'Ametz Libecha V'Kaveh El Adonai" – "Be strong! Take Courage! Hope in the Lord!"

Come to the synagogue, say the words at the end of services "L'taken Olam B'Malchoot Shaddai" – "to fix the world in God's Kingdom." Be strong and of good courage as we prepare to fight on the front line of Western civilization and to fix a world which appears to be broken in too many places.

Chag Sameach – Happy Sukkot!

YOUTH SCOOP FROM JODI

Jodi Gross, Associate Director, Education & Youth

IT IS WONDERFUL TO SEE YOUR CHILDREN and family and hear their voices during the High Holy Days. It is such a busy, but exciting time of year. Special thanks to the 100 volunteers and workers who helped make the High Holiday youth activities and services a success.

Last month, we kicked off our youth group programs. I hope your child(ren) will attend and check out how much fun they can have in Makor (1st to 3rd grades), Shoresh (4th & 5th grades), Gesher/MCUSY JR. The Teen Volunteer Corps is looking for 8th to 12th graders who want to work with other Jewish teens to make a difference. Projects will take place in the Jewish Community and around Metro Detroit.

FROM ELISSA BERG, DIRECTOR, EDUCATION & YOUTH

IT WAS GREAT SEEING so many of you during our first month of school. I hope that your children are enjoying the new reading program and everything else about their classes. Please stay in touch. It is so helpful to hear what is going well for you and also any concerns you may have.

This year we are planning to develop a number of new Shabbat programs so that there is something here for everyone.

On Shabbat October 1, we invite our seventh graders to join us at 11 a.m. to spend some time with Rabbi Bergman. "Ask the Rabbi" will take place in the Classroom at 11 a.m., and then we will join the service at 11:30. October 15 is Family Shabbat @ Adat, an interactive family friendly service led by Rabbi Shere and Hazzan Gross. Family Shabbat @ Adat begins at 10 a.m. and is followed by a special kid-dush. Please respond to dbanooni@adatshalom.org. October 22 is the first Shabbat Religious School morning. All K-6 students are expected to take part. We will all begin in the Youth Lounge at 9:30 a.m. All students will join the B'nai Mitzvah on the Bimah at the end of services to sing Adon Olam and then finish up in the Classroom with a treat and something special to take home. We hope to see your family here on Shabbat many times during the year.

HOLIDAY PROGRAMMING: On October 9 families are invited to join us for Sukkah decorating. We have projects for kids of all ages. The program will begin at 11:30 a.m. for pre-schoolers and noon for everyone else. Families will make decorations for Adat Shalom's sukkah and for their own sukkah if they have one.

We do have school on Wednesday, October 12, Erev Sukkot. From 4:30-5:30 p.m. we will study all about the holiday. At 5:30 there will be a special service (and a treat) in the Sukkah. Please make sure to send a jacket or sweater if it is cool! Parents are welcome to join us at 5:30. There will be no classes on Wednesday, October 19 because of the holiday.

EARLY CHILDHOOD CENTER

BACK ON THE RIGHT TRACK
ECC students return to school

OCTOBER IS HERE, and the school year is in full swing. We had some big changes over the summer that I would like to share with you. Our classrooms look great, and we have moved around many of our teaching staff. We have a strong and exciting faculty ready for the fantastic year ahead. I strongly encourage everyone to come downstairs and look around. There is so much to see, feel and experience. On October 4th we invite our families to attend our Curriculum Night and see through the eyes of your child a glimpse of the fun and sparkle they feel each day when they are here.

In addition, two teachers who were a part of our Early Childhood program for many years did not return this fall. After 32 years of dedicated service to Adat Shalom, Phyllis Kohn will not return to the classroom at Adat Shalom. She gave so much of her time and energy. The Rabbis say that all numbers have a letter equivalent (gematria). The letter equivalent to 32 is lamed vav, which is the word lev, meaning heart. Anyone who has encountered Phyllis knows how big her heart is. She has taught generations from Rabbi Shere to Rabbi Shere's children and all of the generations in between. Mrs. Kohn will now go on and open her heart to many other children in the area. We were lucky to have had her as long as we did.

Lauren Blitz has also left us after being with us for 18 years. She worked in the classroom and in the office. She seemed to be a jack of all trades. According to the rabbis, 18 is equivalent to the word chai, which means life, and Lauren's classroom was always filled with life. At any moment there could be four different activities going on. We wish her well at her new job.

The tremendous optimism that is being felt throughout our school can only strengthen our belief that this year will be a huge success. May you all have an easy fast. And as we finish the Torah on Simchat Torah, let us all say chazak chazak v'nitchazek. Be strong, be strong, and let us all be strengthened.

– Julie Eisman, Director

- TACOS & TORAH -

Please join us as we celebrate Simchat Torah together. At 5:30 p.m. on Thursday, October 20, we will have a Simchat Torah celebration for children who are too young for the traditional evening service. The clergy will join in the singing and dancing with the Torah. Tacos & Torah features an optional taco dinner after the program. Advanced reservations are necessary. After dinner, at 6:45 p.m., we will have a special CONSECRATION PROGRAM welcoming our first graders to their formal Jewish education. Consecration will take place in the Chapel. The children will each receive a small Torah. First grade families are invited to sign up for the taco meal and also to join the regular Simchat Torah service after Consecration. Invitations have been mailed. Please contact us if you have not received yours.

SCHOOL PROGRAMMING:

On Sunday, October 16, our sixth and seventh graders will raise money for Yad Ezra by participating in a LEARNING MARATHON. If you are approached to sponsor one of these students, please make a pledge. The goal is for students to study (in pairs) for a full hour and a half. On October 30, our kindergarten parents are invited to join us at 9:15 a.m. for TAKIN' AND BAKIN'. This is an opportunity to learn about Shabbat and challah baking as a family.

Mark your calendars for Thursday, October 27 at 7 p.m., when the Adat Shalom Sisterhood will proudly co-sponsor Flowers Aren't Enough, a one-woman theatrical performance by world-renowned Israeli actress Naomi Ackerman. This program is a forum on domestic abuse. It is presented by the National Council of Jewish Women and will be held at Temple Israel. We are very fortunate to be a part of this evening, and we hope that you will join us.

■ MEN'S CLUB HAPPENINGS

Our year has picked up where we left off last year. We began by preparing food for the homeless in July, had a lively summer softball season, and then enjoyed a Men's Club board barbecue with 25 people in attendance.

In September we began our regular programming. By this time we will have had our annual Sports Night and Golf Outing events. Both of these popular programs were chaired by Gary Graff.

■ In October we will provide a snack for everyone following Neilah services to break the fast at the end of Yom Kippur.

■ Sunday in the Sukkah is set for 9:30 a.m. on October 16. Rabbi Bergman will speak to the group.

■ We will also be starting our Hebrew Literacy classes this month. These classes are for anyone who wants to learn to read Hebrew and for more advanced students who want to master the prayers of the Shabbat morning service.

■ October 25th will find us Chillin' with the Clergy. This event allows Men's Club members to visit with the clergy in an informal setting and is a really nice way to become more comfortable with our Rabbis and Hazzan. Watch for your flyer with place and time.

■ We will also be having our first book club of the year at 7 p.m. on October 30. Watch for further information on this event as well.

It may look as if most of these events still require some finalizing of the details, and that is a good observation. We are just getting started with our planning and can use any help anyone wants to provide. Join us! We have a great group of members and the Men's Club is a wonderful way to become more involved in the Synagogue. What better way to start the New Year than with greater participation in what Adat Shalom has to offer.

On behalf of the Men's Club and my family, I would like to wish you all a wonderful New Year.

- Bobby Blum, President

The Poetry of Prayer

WITH RABBI RACHEL SHERE
AND LYNNE GOLODNER

A look at Jewish prayer through new eyes with Rabbi Shere and author and entrepreneur Lynne Golodner (formerly Schreiber).

In three sessions, Rabbi Shere and Lynne Golodner will look at the language with which we pray and understand how both Hebrew and English can be poetic and inspiring – not just required religious reading. By the end of this class, you may try your hand at constructing your own poetic prayer imbued with your own personal meaning and inspiration.

Tuesdays, November 1, 8 & 15 7:30 p.m.

Lynne Meredith Golodner has a BA from the University of Michigan and an MFA in writing from Goddard College. She teaches at the University of Detroit Mercy, has written thousands of journalistic articles, and is the author of five published books and three forthcoming in 2012, including a novel. She is also the owner and chief creative officer of Your People LLC, a marketing, public relations, and business development company.

YAD EZRA DELIVERIES, SUNDAY, OCTOBER 2

On Sunday, October 2, we will need volunteers to make Yad Ezra deliveries. This involves driving to Yad Ezra that morning with your family or friends and picking up groceries to deliver to two or three clients in the area. It only takes about 1½ hours. Without this "home delivery," many homebound recipients would not receive their groceries. If you would like to participate in this mitzvah, please contact Evva Hepner at 248-798-7673 or evva987@aol.com.

FRIENDSHIP CIRCLE

MARVELOUS MONDAYS at the Friendship Circle's Weinberg Village will begin in October. In this lifelike village, volunteers role-play various positions within a community. Visitors to the Village are school-age special needs students, who practice everyday life skills, which are so very important in the development of their independence. Volunteers are needed in every area of the Village to insure the most meaningful experience for the participants. Please contact Leslie Magy at 248-723-6542(h), 248-514-4179(c), or lesliemagy@gmail.com

RONALD McDONALD HOUSE, SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 13

On Sunday, November 13th, we will prepare and serve dinner for families of children who are hospitalized at Children's Hospital in Detroit and are staying at the local Ronald McDonald House. Dinners usually include baked fish, salad, lasagna, dessert, and drinks. If you and your family would like to help out, you can prepare or donate a portion of the meal and/or you can help deliver and serve the meal. This is a great activity for the whole family. If you would like to participate, email Deb Lapin at lapes321@sbcglobal.net

BLOOD DRIVE

Thanks to everyone who participated in the Red Cross Blood Drive on September 11. A special thank you to Ruth Zerlin, Amy Strauss and Marcy Colton for all of their efforts on this project.

of most of the t'fillot (prayers) associated with this pilgrimage festival have to do with either rain or supplication. Some consider it superstition, some a Jewish rain dance, but most people will say that the shaking of the lulav in the six directions (front, right, back, left, up, down) is to indicate the omnipresence of God. In the Talmud, some Rabbis stated that the purpose of shaking is to ward off evil spirits. I think the best and most concise rationale is that the shaking is a form of prayer through action.

Whether or not you shake, the whole point of utilizing the lulav and etrog is that they are a physical connection to our past. Thousands of years ago, our ancestors were fervently praying for rain on Sukkot, and they utilized the Four Species to intensify their prayers. While we may not be praying for rain this Sukkot, we are coming together to celebrate as one on this beautiful festival. Moadim L'Simcha!

ONGOING PROJECTS.....

THERE IS A CHILL IN THE AIR...Like to knit or crochet? Drop off 7x9 inch "squares" in the synagogue office, donate or pick up yarn, or help put together afghans. These completed afghans are donated to seniors in community. In addition to making afghans, we will continue to make Beanie Baby Blankets. Can you make a 12 x 12 inch square? These squares will be used to make a Beanie Baby Blanket. Beanie Babies and blankets will be donated to area hospitals for pediatric patients. The squares must be made of washable, acrylic yarn. NO WOOL PLEASE! We are also looking for new Beanie Babies; check your drawers and closets. Can't knit? Claire Richmond would be happy to teach you. Give her a call at 248-476-3723.

MITZVAH CRIB

Donate your used baby items to the Mitzvah Crib, located in the hallway on our lower level. If you have any questions, call Jennifer Ribiat at 248-505-3802, or email her at sribiat277mi@comcast.com

It is not what one says, but rather what one does, that makes a difference in the world.
(Pirke Avot, 1:17)

Thank you to everyone who has donated eye glasses and cases to the Lion's Club. May you know the Mitzvah that you have provided to many people. - Dr. Gary Oppenheim

Please continue to bring in glasses you no longer use. Deposit in box on reception desk.

COLLEGE STUDENT & YOUNG ADULT OUTREACH

- Is your son or daughter starting college this fall?
 - Is he/she moving to a new place in the fall?
 - Did he/she graduate from college last May?
 - Do you want your student to stay connected to Adat Shalom?
- If you answered, YES, to any of these questions, help us reach out to your student or young adult.

What is our Undergrad and Post-College Outreach Program? Throughout the school year our Rabbis visit Michigan universities to connect with your college student and bringing him/her a "taste from home." Thanks to parent volunteers, Adat Shalom also sends "goody" packages for Chanukah and Pesach.

In addition, Adat Shalom wants to connect with young adults (20-30s). Adat Shalom sends them holiday packages and invitations to participate in the Young Adult Group at Adat Shalom (See page 10).

We appreciate having received your student's contact information last year. Nevertheless, each fall we update the database and kindly request your help by completing the tear off below or emailing the information on the tear off to Jodi Gross, jgross@adatshalom.org. If your student/young adult has not moved, please let us know. Thanks!
